Fulcrum Partners Reminds Taxpayers about Charitable Donations in 2021

ATLANTA, GA -- (December 21, 2021) Fulcrum Partners, a OneDigital Company, reminds U.S. federal taxpayers that the temporary tax break for charitable donations to qualified organizations continues through December 31, 2021, even for taxpayers who do not itemize their deductions. This special ruling, currently scheduled to expire on January 1, 2022, was put in place as part of the CARES Act of March 2020. Last December lawmakers extended the deduction through 2021.

“For many companies, families and individuals, end-of-year charitable giving is as much a part of the holiday season as hanging stockings or decorating a tree,” said Fulcrum Partners Managing Director Mike Powers. “But our team wanted to remind taxpayers that with this provision of the CARES Act likely ending this month, they may want to ensure that their seasonal charitable donations are counted before the year ends.”

With a commitment to “Leadership through Service,” the team at Fulcrum Partners supports select charitable organizations, locally and worldwide. Among the organizations to receive charitable donations from Fulcrum Partners are Cristo Rey Network New York High School, Daniel Kids, Delray Beach Public Library, World Bicycle Relief, Boys and Girls Club of Bluffton, Arise Rwanda Ministries, Hugaroo, Chapman University, Junior Achievement Orange County (CA), Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County (CA), The Jobs Partnership of Florida, Death2Life Revolution, Palm Beach Atlantic University, Family First, Luis Palau Association, Nations Church, Christ for all Nations, Vision Orlando, Blessings in a Backpack, 306 Foundation and First Church Orlando.
